FREEMAN & ORCHARD,

This Association is now in complete operation. Originally formed to give aid in times of epidemics, it has been deemed ad-to systematize and regulate charity-giving, to prevent imposture, and to put down street-begging. It may not be out of place to give the public, whose co-operation is so-lieited, some idea of the working of the no relations to take care of them; therefore, the charity funds of the Association will not be given in aid of permanent cases of poverty, but will be bestowed only where there is a sudden and unexpected call for

2. No aid should be given by our citizens to ordinary street beggars, but such persons should always be referred to the committee of visitors in the ward wherein such applicant makes his home, and the case will be promptly investigated, and, if Money will not be given to the poor, but such supplies of food as may be most needed, and which the Association can procure on more favorable terms than the alms

In a word, the object of the Association is mainly to relieve the deserving poor, those who make every effort to support themselves, but who may be temporarily deprived, by sickness or other misfortune of their daily subsistence. For such as are permanently disabled, and who require continuous support, the Asylum is the proper refuge.

The Association will be under obligations to the citizens who will aid them
